

We do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal. 2 Cor. 4:16-18 (ESV)

Opening Remarks:

Overview of Study:

Observation 1: The heart must ever be encouraged by the truth of internal renewing grace.

Observation 2: The head must remember the unimaginable value of glory over that which is lost in afflictions.

Observation 3: The eyes must be fixed on that which they cannot see, but which the ears convincingly tell them is there.

Exposition of Text:

Observation 1: The heart must ever be encouraged by the truth of internal renewing grace.

Observation 2: The head must remember the unimaginable value of glory over that which is lost in afflictions.

Observation 3: The eyes must be fixed on that which they cannot see, but which the ears convincingly tell them is there.